partitions were placed in the orderly room to reduce the noise level.

MORALE: This quarter the squadron's Airman of the Quarter, ALC William F. Sivillo, was also selected for Cam Ranh Bay Air Base Airman of the Quarter and consequently was given a three day trip to Hong Kong courtesy of the base. ALC Charles A. Shryer, Airman of the Year ending March 31, 1971 and Airman of the Month for February, was submitted for MAC Airman of the Year. No results have been forwarded up to this time. A complete listing of Airman and NCO of the Month and Quarter may be found in Appendix 6.³

During this quarter, the Awards and Decorations Section⁴ continued functioning at a rapid pace due to the large number of squadron personnel DEROS'ing and being submitted for End-Of-Tour awards. Several individuals that exhibited outstanding effectiveness in responsible positions were submitted for the Bronze Star Medal in addition to other flying awards in an effort to recognize their accomplishments in their primary duties. Also, the two aircrews that participated in the Son Tay POW camp raid were submitted for Silver Stars for their heroic actions in the daring rescue attempt.

After a six month wait, Sikorsky aircraft finally forwarded the first of the Sikorsky Winged S pins and certificates. Hopefully, more will come in the near future.

3. See Appendix 6 on page 45.

4. Awards and Decorations information was supplied by Capt. John H. Fletcher Jr., Asst. Awards and Decorations Officer.
