THE MARINE CORPS OPERATIONS ANALYSIS GROUP

is a division of the Operations Evaluation Group. It is responsible for providing advice and technical assistance in those areas susceptible of operations analysis. Its principal reporting point is the Deputy Chief of Staff for Research and Development, although most of its analysts report to the Director of the Marine Corps Landing Force Development Center. The MCOAG is under the scientific direction of the Operations Evaluation Group and shares a common manpower pool with OEG and its associated Naval Warfare Analysis Group. The Operations Evaluation Group and the Institute for Naval Studies are the principal components of the Center for Naval Analyses, which is managed by the Franklin Institute.

The MCOAG publishes its formal research as studies, each of which presents the complete results of the analysis of a Marine Corps problem. Work of a less formal nature appears in publications of limited distribution.

Copies of these and other MCOAG publications are available to authorized persons from—

THE DIRECTOR
Marine Corps Operations Analysis Group
Marine Corps Landing Force Development Center
Marine Corps Schools
