

In the Auction 1 6 memorial the e is missing in Joel C. Hatley

At time mark 35:00 Harold Smith interview and Col. Johnson preceding it. need to use mostly ¼ frame boxes to minimize their images due to film quality.
Let's run the video and put their images in a ¼ screen, upper left box. The film image quality is not good enough for full screen.

Use the following for underlying video.:

Hi Dan,

The following were previously given you.

Yield is misspelled at time mark 9:50 in the Marines captioning.

I had the date wrong on the Ripcord Extraction. It was July 23, 1970, not the 24th.

After the title 1972 THE DECISIVE YEAR

The next caption says The Easter Offensive, March 30, 1971, It should say 1972

Here are what I hope to be the last changes to the credits.

Lt. Col. Robert L. Clewell, U.S.A. (ret.) the L was missing

After Voice Actors are named add the following:

When I am shown again, (facing directly to camera only) put me in a ¼ screen, upper left, full screen the video

Delete 8:32 to 8:50

Use Dewey Canyon footage to transition into segment

In Dewey Canyon 1, I want to delete 8:32 to 8:50.

Ghostrider 3 2 responded to Lt. Col. Peachey, "Roger, Give us the Word and we'll be rolling in."

Moments later, Ghostrider 32 reported he'd also been hit by .51 cal. fire. Lt. Col. Peachey called it off temporarily. A short while later, Lt. Col. Peachey's aircraft was shot down by a .51 cal machinegun.

51:10 Make sure we have the word "Cease Fire" and not "truce." The truce was never obtained.

Thanks!

With these and the following prior items completed. I have a movie. The lead in, movie and closing credits will run just over 1 hour 50 minutes, hopefully.

Once I proof these changes, I want to get a production master dvd with copy protection added to it. I will produce the first few copies in Orlando. When I get enough orders to prepay an order a 1,000, we'll get an agreement with 321 Group to produce and fulfill them.

As we create the production master with copy protection, simultaneously, I need Tom Affeld to create the order form on the web page.

Great job!!

THESE WERE PREVIOUSLY SENT ARE PARTIALLY COMPLETED IN THE 4/21/2010 version.
