

THE U.S. NATIONAL ARCHIVES & RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

www.archives.gov

Wednesday, July 8, 2009

Motion Picture Films and Sound and Video Recordings

- Information About Holdings
- On-Line Resources
 - Motion Picture, Sound and Video unit Materials
 - Presidential Library Audiovisual Finding Aids
 - Archival Research Catalog (ARC)
 - Motion Picture, Sound, and Video unit holdings
 - Presidential Library holdings
- Other Resources

Information About Holdings

The National Archives multimedia collections include nearly 300,000 reels of motion picture film and more than 200,000 sound and video recordings. These materials are held by:

- Washington, DC area facilities
 - On-Line Resources
 - Motion Picture, Sound, and Video unit Materials
 - Nixon Library (College Park, MD)
 - Information about holdings in ARC
 - Other Resources
- Presidential Libraries
 - On-Line Resources
 - Presidential Library Audiovisual Finding Aids
 - Information about holdings in ARC
 - Other Resources

On-Line Resources

Motion Picture, Sound, and Video unit Materials

- The Motion Picture, Sound, and Video unit, Special Media Archives Services Division, located at the National Archives at College Park, makes available on-line some information about NARA's motion picture, sound, and video records holdings. On-line finding aids to holdings and informational resources include:

- o Information About Card Catalogs
- o Catalog of Longines Chronoscope Interviews [Large File - 201KB]
- o Select Audiovisual Records: Captured German Sound Recordings (1977).
- o Select Audiovisual Records: The Crucial Decade: Voices of the Postwar Era, 1945-1954 [rev. 1994].
- o Select Audiovisual Records: Sound Recordings: Voices of World War II, 1937-1945 [rev. 1994].
- o General Information Leaflet 34: National Archives Gift Collection Acquisition Policy: Motion Pictures and Sound and Video Recordings (1990)
- o To Obtain Reproductions of Motion Pictures, Sound Recordings, and Videotapes
- o Information available in the Guide to Federal Records in the National Archives of the United States 3 vols. (1995), may be used to identify holdings by record group.
- o Contact the reference staff of the Motion Picture, Sound, and Video unit: mopix@nara.gov

Presidential Library Audiovisual Finding Aids

- Franklin D. Roosevelt Library: Audiovisual Archives
- Harry S. Truman Library: Audiovisual Materials
- Dwight D. Eisenhower Library: Audiovisual Department
- John Fitzgerald Kennedy Library: Audiovisual Archives
- Lyndon Baines Johnson Library: Recordings and Transcripts of President Johnson's Telephone Conversations
- Nixon Library (College Park, MD)
- Gerald R. Ford Library: Audiovisual Collections
- Jimmy Carter Library
- Ronald Reagan Library: Audiovisual Materials

Archival Research Catalog (ARC):

The ARC database can be used to search by media type and by subject.

- Descriptions of a large number of motion picture films and sound and video recordings in the Motion Picture, Sound and Video component of the Special Media Archives Services Division are available through ARC.

Search Hint:

- o Go to the ARC basic search screen.
- o Select Motion Picture, Sound, and Video Branch from the NARA Location filter box.
- o Press the "Go" button to retrieve descriptions of moving images or sound recordings within the Motion Pictures, Sound, and Video unit. (You may limit your search further by entering keywords in the Keywords boxes.)

Search ARC

- The following Presidential Libraries have some of their motion picture films or sound and video recordings described in ARC:
 - Harry S. Truman Library
 - Jimmy Carter Library
 - Lyndon Baines Johnson Library
 - George Bush Library

Search Hint:

- Go to the ARC basic search screen.
- Select Moving Images and/or Sound Recordings from the Type filter box.
- Select [A Presidential Library] from the NARA Location filter box.
- Press the "Go" button to retrieve descriptions of moving images or sound recordings within the holdings of that Presidential Library. (You may limit your search further by entering keywords in the Keywords boxes.)

Search ARC

Other Resources

- Most of NARA's finding aids are not yet online
- Send us your request.

- The Herbert Hoover Library does not currently have motion picture film, sound or video recording finding aid information available online, but you may contact them for information about their holdings.

Page URL: <http://www.archives.gov/research/formats/film-sound-video.html>

The U.S. National Archives and Records Administration
8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001 • Telephone: 1-86-NARA-NARA or 1-866-272-6272