Subject: IMDb is granting you a Title Page for your film

Congratulations Thomas,

Your submission for "The Price of Exit:Anthology" has been received by FILM-COM Financing & Distribution Completion Market and is now in consideration. This entitles you to set up a Title Page on IMDb, the most trafficked movie site in the world - with 57 million film fans visiting each month. IMDb is eager to help you publicize and promote your movie right now, as soon as it's ready for the world, not just after you've won recognition for it. A Title Page on IMDb is free, but can be granted only by IMDb's data editors.

There are two ways to claim your Title Page on IMDb: The easy way, and the not easy way.

THE EASY WAY

Use this link to login to Withoutabox:

https://www.withoutabox.com/03film/03t_acc/03t_acc_strt.php?from_invite=1

Username: [REDACTED]

Password: (confidential)

Forgot password? Go to: <http://www.withoutabox.com/index.php?cmd=public.forgot>

You will be directed to our Account Linking feature, prompting you to link your existing IMDb Account, or to create a new one and then link it. This is 100% secure, because Withoutabox is a part of IMDb. Once your accounts are linked, Withoutabox will automatically submit data for all your qualifying films to IMDb, and you will not need to fill out any additional forms. (Any updates to your Title Page can be made later directly through IMDb.)

THE NOT EASY WAY

Provide your film information directly through the IMDb website. (You may skip the lengthy eligibility rules at the top of the first page, since you have already pre-qualified by this program.) You will need to select "Completed and invited by Withoutabox" in the Status section of the form, then enter this Withoutabox Invite Code: 2653857.

Here's the link to set up your Title Page at IMDb. If you already have an IMDb account, start by logging in (upper right corner). If not, just register for a free account with the email address wtmjr@attglobal.net, confirm your registration, then begin:

<http://www.imdb.com/updates?update=title>

EITHER WAY...

We will notify you once your title page has been validated by IMDb's data editors, which can take up to two weeks. You'll then be able to upload video to your page, such as trailers and clips. (Video has quickly become an essential part of any IMDb Title Page, so prepare for that.) Got questions? Contact support at:

<https://www.withoutabox.com/index.php?cmd=public.support>

Enjoy your new Title Page, and make good use of it!

If you already have a Title Page for your project, that's great. Just enter the URL in the Publicity:Website form for "The Price of Exit:Anthology" on Withoutabox - and an immediate "match" will be made.

Sincerely,

Team, Withoutabox
