Letter Number 8

Greetings:

Nothing much happening here but thought it time to drop y'all a note. I like to stay in touch a least once a quarter if for no other reason than to make sure me and the post office know where to find some of you shifty characters.

As its been about a year since you've received a roster, I'm sending along the most recent one. You'll also find a rather lengthy "Looking For" list. Feel free to do some detective work if the mood strikes.

Another of my enclosures is a comparison of the VHPA's KIA information with my "Looking For" list. If you know for a fact that there is a match, please tell me. Don't assume that someone else will get word to me. Our numbers are small and each and every one of you has vital information that no one else has.

If you are ever in the area give me a shout. Bob Acklen came through a while back and we sat down for a couple of hours of reminiscing. Talk about some stories, he's got a few. Seems he spent almost 3 years in Vietnam before being medivaced out. One of his tours was as a grunt commander.

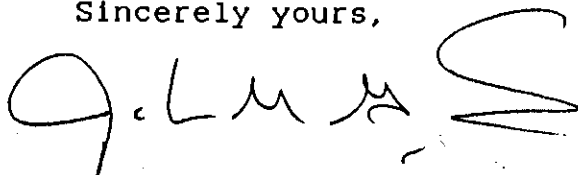

This months reading material is provided courtesy of Harry Kernahan. Sorry about the "Dragon Fire" being hard to read, but its the best I can do. If you've got something to share, please send it in.

Speaking of which, I understand that at one time a company roster existed. If you are the proud owner of same, get off your duff and get me a copy!

A special request to "Wild Bill" Fraker. It seems your reputation as a writer has preceded you. We can't pay you much, but we would all be interested in seeing some of your handiwork.

Until next time, think SNOW or NEW ORLEANS or some equally pleasant thoughts!

Sincerely yours,
