THE HORNETS AVIATORS PRAYER

Lord as I make my pre-flight inspection I pray to you my aircrafts in perfection, I gaze into my Crew-Chiefs eyes and read his fear placed in disguised. My gunners smile which seems it could stretch a mile is only a shield pushed from far below to disguise the fear he's affraid to show. Lord, now as I climb into my armored throne I wonder oh Lord what remains to be shown. As I look back unto my crew "COMING UP CLEAR TO MOVE" cold and hard this armored seat and now I can feel the good earth leave from below my feet, and wonder what dangers today I shall meet. Maybe today I will touch your hand or rest my body on this weary land. Lord its not that Im affraid to die among the clouds within the sky. But I pray Dear Lord you will see it able for me to break bread upon a table and feel the touch of my loved ones hand and rest my weary body upon AMERICAN land and gaze into the clouded skies and never again Dear Lord see fear hidden in DISGUISE.
