

14 Dec 69

Dearest Mom & Dad,

Will write you a few lines today. I had guard last night. We don't have as many bunkers now cause they moved & training up here. That's training for guys coming from the States to the 101st.

It's not been too cold for the last couple of days. It still gets chilly. The only reason it isn't cold is because it's not raining.

I only have a 101 days left now. I sure hope it passes by pretty quick. That's not really a long time. I'll sure be glad to get back home for a while.

I hope I get Lt. Curtis

when I get back. I don't know if they ever put my woc paper work through. I sure hope they did!

What did they think of him? (Shame) Has he gotten to see him yet?

Well I guess I'll go for now. Write soon.

Your son,
David
Dye