These are the men who, when challenged to "ask what can you do for your country?", donned the Green Beret with President Kennedy's blessing. These are the men and comrades of the men who fought, and died, in every part of Indochina from Oct 21, 1957 (Harry Cramer) to Dec 15, 1973 (Richard M Rees). These are the men who did the job that was asked of them, and more -- as evidenced by 17 Medals of Honor, 118 Distinguished Service Crosses and more than 1000 Silver Stars distributed to a unit in which less than 20,000 served over a 15 year history. They did that job despite journalistic bias, fickle public support and byzantine politics at home and abroad and still were able to view the result with wry humor - "We didn't lose the war; they just cut off our per diem."

We would like to thank the many people without whose orders,/comments/advice this booklet would not have been possible. If you have any TDY orders/award citations that are not included in this publication please send them to the publisher's address shown below.

If you have any additions or corrections to make, please either copy the page and note the corrections or send the correction on a separate sheet. Please do not copy this booklet in its entirety. If someone else wants a copy, please refer him to the publisher and suggest he purchase his own copy. Sales of these booklets (and the Green Beret magazine reprints) supports the our efforts to document Special Forces History.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this book is to provide a framework for the study of Special Forces' contributions to Free World Military Assistance programs in the Vietnam Theater (1957-1975). Our scope covers operations in Indochina (Laos, Cambodia, and Vietnam) and in Thailand in support of operations in Indochina, for which the Vietnam Service Medal or the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal was authorized. Also included are such operations prior to April 19, 1961.

We have endeavored to document every Special Forces Detachment that served in this Theater, to note the place, time and mission of that service and to recognize the Officer (OIC) and Non-Commissioned Officer in charge (NCOIC). Staff sections down to C-Detachment or equivalent are also noted. This information has been collected, with the assistance of the principals, through orders, rosters and personal interviews, over a period of many years. We want to thank all those who helped us; the mistakes are our own and we regret these imperfections. The likely mistakes are due to the limited detail that space/time allowed, or errors in dates or in the sequence of the names presented. There are few, if any, Special Forces elements missing from this list. If another source reports a unit that does not conform to the patterns evident herein, it is likely that that unit was not a Special Forces unit. There are three programs that were heavily staffed by former Special Forces personnel which are not covered herein. There are the (Provincial Reconnaissance Unit) PRU program, the Provincial Senior Advisor (PSA) program and Projects 404/606 (in Laos). These were not Special Forces operations. MACV Studies and Observation Group (MAC-SOG) is included here. Though this joint command was not a Special Forces operation, the army component was staffed, in part, by Special Forces personnel who moved freely between SOG's Saigon headquarters and the Command and Control (C&C) Operations of the Special Operations Augmentation (SOA) to 5th Special Forces Group.

From Roles and Functions of U.S. Special Operations Forces by John M. Collins appearing in Special Warfare, July 1993 PB 80-93-3:

"Title 10, Section 167[United States Code], lists 10 'activities' equivalent to statutory roles and missions for special operations: direct action; strategic reconnaissance; unconventional warfare; foreign internal defense; counter-terrorism; theater search and rescue; psychological operations; civil affairs; humanitarian assistance; and 'such other activities as may be specified by the President or the Secretary of Defense.'

"DoD instructions differ from Title 10 in important respects. Directive 5100.1 tells the Army, Navy and Air Force 'to organize, train, equip and provide forces for the support and conduct of special operations. . .'"

Comment: Compare with Son Tay raid, Command & Control reconnaissance operations, Project 404 (Laos), UITG/FANK, the CIDG program, BRIGHT LIGHT, local and theater PSYOPS, RevDev Programs.

The U.S. Army Special Forces (USASF) began its involvement in Indochina when it sent the first of many Mobile Training Teams (MTT's) to Vietnam in 1957. Other MTT's went to Thailand (19??-??), Laos (1959-1962) and, again to Vietnam, in 1960.

As American involvement in Vietnam grew, other teams were sent to Vietnam under the operational control of a CIA entity, Combined Studies Division (CSD), developing the programs that shaped Special Forces involvement in Vietnam during the later years. Training camps at Song Mao, Hoa Cam and Thu Duc set the relationships between USASF and the Vietnamese Special Forces (LLDB). Special Forces detachments in the Buon Enao project (1961-62) led the way for the nearly 100 Civilian Irregular Defense Group (CIDG) camps that were advised by Special Forces "A" detachments. The "A" detachments (see box) served as advisors to the LLDB camp commanders, controlling up to four companies of irregular troops in Border Security (BS), Area Denial/Interdiction roles. These camps also trained Mountain Scout (MS), Airborne/Ranger (ABN) and other (CAT Y) special operations forces. USASF detachments also had Sector (Provincial) and Sub-sector (District) advisory responsibilities in some localities.

As the Special Forces roles expanded, a provisional headquarters (U.S. Army Special Forces Vietnam (Provisional)) was established. The headquarters was augmented with a "C" detachment. "B" detachments were posted to each Corps Tactical Zone. The "A", "B" and "C" Detachments came to Vietnam on six month temporary duty (TDY) assignments from 1st Special Forces Group (Abn) (SFGA) (Okinawa), 5th SFGA (Ft. Bragg, NC) and 7th SFGA (Ft. Bragg, NC). These teams retained a high degree of team integrity and efforts were made to return a team to the same camp on succeeding rotations. Funding for the CIDG program went from civilian to military control through Operation ?PARASOL SWITCHBACK and the Special Forces headquarters was moved from the quarters it shared with CSD to the Special Forces Operational Base (SFOB) in Nha Trang in 1963.

The next year, the 5th SFGA was given responsibility for SF operations in Vietnam. Detachments arrived in Vietnam on a Permanent Change of Station (PCS) and replacements came in on individual orders. TDY teams in support of CIDG programs were phased out as the PCS teams arrived, but some TDY support was needed for the conduct of Special Operations. CSD became SOG. 5th SFGA provided admin, personnel and logistical support for SOG's cross-border and agent training operations. Personnel thus assigned were considered as a "Special Operations Augmentation" (SOA).

As conventional forces arrived in Vietnam, the SF/CIDG role changed. U.S. forces tried to use the CIDG as an expendable light infantry force in joint operations and were often lax in providing proper support both in the field and in besieged camps. Special Forces developed mobile guerilla force (MGF) and mobile reaction force elements. The reaction forces evolved into Corps-level Mobile Strike Forces (MSF or Mike Forces) - multi-battalion airborne/air mobile units under direct USASF control. The mobile guerilla force concept was taken out of the Corps Mike Forces' control and put into three Special Reconnaissance Projects: B-50 (OMEGA) in IICTZ, B-56 (SIGMA) in III CTZ, and B-52 (DELTA) operating country-wide.

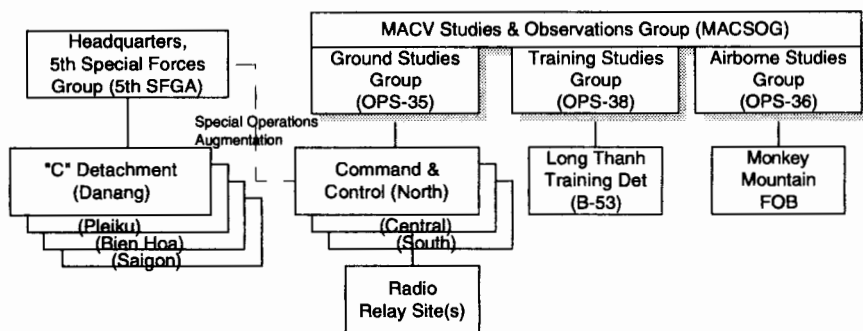

A Special Operations "C" Detachment (C-5 or Company E) was set up to control these Special Projects. This detachment was also given responsibility for B-51 (VNSF Training Center), B-53 (Abn/Ranger/Agent Training), B-55 (country-wide Mike Force) and B-57 (GAMMA) (Intelligence Collection). B-52 was also tasked to operate the MACV Recondo School, training LRRP's and other reconnaissance assets. B-50, B-56 and B-53 went further under MACSOG control (the former two combining to form Command & Control South) and the "C" Detachment was disbanded.

mention 46th company/ projects 404/606 here.

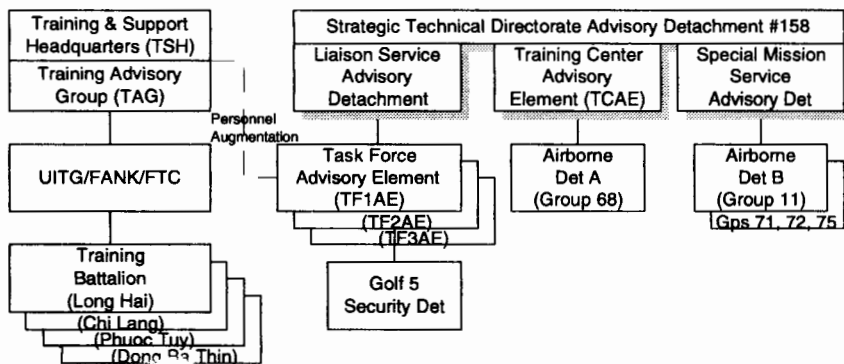

Changes in the MACV command (Abrams replaced Westmoreland in 1968) and a brouhaha precipitated by the apparent execution of an alleged double agent at Project GAMMA in 1969 resulted in green beanies being in disfavor. CIDG camps were converted to Border Ranger Programs and red-bereted advisors replaced Special Forces personnel. The LLDB was disbanded, and VNSF personnel became Rangers or joined the Special Missions Service (SMS). 5th Group colors were returned to Ft. Bragg in 1971, but the Special Forces structure remained under new names, primarily supporting special operations and training missions. A major role was the training of the Cambodian Army (Forces Armee Nationale Khmer or FANK), conducted by the successor formations to Co A (Bien Hoa), B-51 (Dong Ba Thin), B-36 (Long Hai) and B-43 (Chi Lang). SF Personnel were also assigned to Military Equipment Delivery Team/Cambodia (MEDT/C) where the former 5th Group Commander Jonathan Ladd was the Military Attache/MAAG Commander? When the North Vietnamese offensive in 1972 devastated elements of the Vietnamese Armed Forces (ARVN), TDY personnel from the 1st SFGA that had stopped arriving in 1968 returned to provide refresher training to ARVN.

SPECIAL OPERATIONS COMMAND RELATIONSHIPS 1969-1970

SPECIAL OPERATIONS COMMAND RELATIONSHIPS 1971-1972

The Command & Control elements assigned to SOG devolved into an advisory role. SOG was deactivated in 1972 and reappeared as Strategic Technical Directorate Assistance Team (STDAT) #158. With the implementation of the Paris Accords in 1973, the only remaining element of SOG/Special Forces was the Joint Casualty Resolution Center (JPRC) based in Thailand.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Each camp/detachment is shown in one of ten listed numerical series: Please note that these designations are of the authors' own devising and are only loosely based on in-country numbering. These numbers are shown in bold type at the outside top corner of the page. Units that have a logical relationship are grouped under the same number. Often this indicated that a team closed the camp at one location and moved to another. Sometimes it merely indicates that a particular asset "A" or "B" detachment was assigned briefly in a given Corps area in a similar role. (Icons: a gate-sign for CIDG/SS camps, a scrolled tab for recon/reaction force units, or a tab for control detachments.)

Chart #? identifies the elements of information on each detachment entry. Photo captions, for photographs placed at the bottom of pages or in photo plate sections, refer to the authors' identifying numbers.

Alternate Headquarters Elements

Nha Trang (MAAG Compound) (USASFV (P))

CPT Hayes, John G. & MSG Friend, Al moved ASA out of villa in Nha Trang and prepared it for USASF-V Hq. Command functions alternated between Nha Trang and Saigon until COL Spears firmly planted his office at the SFOB in Nha Trang in 10/1/64. Some command functions, then later only a Liaison Detachment remained in Saigon.

Activities of Seabee well-drilling teams with SF is undocumented. 26 Seabees in 5 teams under EOC Willie M Gipson (from 3/64 to 12/65 supported USAID & SF well drilling requirements and trained VN drillers. Which teams went to which SF camps is unknown. Seabee teams also operated in Thailand and Laos The degree to which SF operations were supported is unknown.

KA and KB teams from 539th Engineer Detachment, (Okinawa) began to arrive, on a TDY basis, to provide organic engineering support for SF. Editors are still seeking Seabeen and 539th Eng Det TDY Orders.

CPT Schwar arranged with AATTV CPT Guy Boileau at CSD Danang for AATTV members posted at the Dong Da National Training Center (near Phu Bai) to rotate at Khe Sanh, serving with the Special Forces team in, roughly, 3 week increments. "The Team" reports that AATTV advisors served with SF in the summer of '63 at Hoa Cam and, beginning in Sep 63, seven AATTV personnel "slots" would be made available for such rotations. After the CG/SDC training center in Hiep Khanh was closed in Feb 64, additional members of the Team joined Special Forces. Names, where known, are listed with the SF teams on which they served.
