Dear Jerry (JOHN)

Thank you for your speech at the ceremony today. I was so glad to hear
words like "love" and
"healing". I was the teenage daughter of a "hawk" and a sister of a conscientious ^(SP?)
objector, the friend of an AWOL, the lover
of a boy-turned-junkie.
I was a vet of the war at home over
the war in Vietnam.
I promise, some of did
care, do care about the vets, whether we agreed with the war
or not. Thank you,
J.
