

THE CITY OF GRANBURY

116 WEST BRIDGE STREET
GRANBURY, TEXAS 76048

ASSOCIATES OF THE FRANK E. EVANS-DD754 REUNION

The seal of the City of Granbury, Texas, is circular. It features a five-pointed star in the center, with a smaller star on each of its points. The word "GRANBURY" is arched across the top, and "TEXAS" is arched across the bottom. The year "1873" is at the very bottom. The words "A City Building Toward The Future" are written in a smaller font across the middle of the seal.

A City Building Toward The Future

September 25,

Dear Associates of the Frank E. Evans-DD754 Reunion,

On behalf of the citizens of Granbury, Texas, and Mr. J.C. Campbell, a citizen of Granbury and former member of the Frank E. Evans-DD754 crew, it is an honor to invite the associates of the Frank E. Evans-DD754 Reunion to hold their 1993 Annual Convention in Granbury.

Granbury is like a journey into yesteryear. It's a place with a special grace and enchantment all its own. Nestled on the shores of Lake Granbury, turn of the century limestone buildings make up the historic district with an array of unique boutiques, antiques, galleries, tea rooms and restaurants. The Granbury Opera House offers professional live theater that will please the most discriminating theater enthusiast. Lake Granbury is 33 miles long making it a perfect setting for the majestic Granbury Queen Riverboat. The Granbury Queen offers sight-seeing excursions, dinner/dance cruises and private parties. Modern lodging and meeting facilities, and leisure activities of golf, water sports, fishing and festivals make Granbury the perfect location for a successful and fun-filled reunion.

Please let myself or the Granbury Convention & Visitors Bureau know how we may assist in the site selection process. If selected to host your next reunion, rest assured that the Granbury community will work to make your reunion an unprecedented success.

Best regards,
