

UNITED STATES NAVAL INSTITUTE

118 MARYLAND AVENUE • ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND 21402-5035

Dear Sir/Madam:

Your reunion was published in a 1995 issue of Proceedings, xerox copy is enclosed. Also enclosed is further information which may be of interest to those who attend the reunion.

1. An order form for our Ceremonial & Action Series Certificates. A quantity discount form is also enclosed.
2. A photo order form. if your reunion group orders 25 or more photos you qualify for a special discount.
3. A special flyer describing the benefits of membership of the Naval Institute. If you are interested in obtaining a quantity of these flyers to display at your reunion please send your request to: U.S. Naval Institute, Reunion Editor, 118 Maryland Ave., Annapolis, MD 21402
4. Our standard Reunion Form.

Thank you for participating in the open forum provided by Proceedings. We hope that your reunion goes well. We look forward to hearing from you in the future.

Sincerely,

Mary Beth Straight
Reunion Editor

P.S. The Naval Institute has a reunion database. Your reunion has been placed in the database. We are able to answer inquiries from individuals wanting to know if their ship, air unit, or organization has had or is going to have a reunion.

PPS. We encourage you to plan your next reunion in the Washington, DC, Annapolis, MD, or Baltimore, MD area. We invite your group to visit the U.S. Naval Academy and stop in to see the Naval Institute. You may wish to plan your reunion around one of the Naval Institute's seminars, as well.