Dear Bill:

The purpose of this letter is to officially thank the U.S. Navy Memorial Foundation for its courtesy in making available, pro bono, the President's Room for use by the important, charitable work of the Agent Orange Coordinating Council.

Everyone was very impressed with the room, even though I told them "you ain't seen nothin' yet."

The support rendered to us by John Hoshko was particularly to be commended.

Sincerely,

E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
