Dear Admiral Zumwalt,

It was a great pleasure having you here for our annual ethics symposium. I would like to express my deep gratitude to you for your keynote address and the exceptional influence it had on the ensuing discussions which guaranteed the outstanding success of the conference.

Post conference critiques show that our student body rated the time as very well spent. As an example, I would like to share a comment from one of our senior seminars: "Overall well done - INTERESTING AND EDUCATIONAL. I was prepared to be bored and was pleasantly surprised." Your keen comments and willingness to share your heartfelt experiences provided a fundamental ingredient, without which we could not have presented such a worthwhile and stimulating program.

It was great to see you again, Admiral. Thank you once more for your contributions. I hope we will have an opportunity to spend more time together in the near future. Rest assured that "the old bastard" is always welcome here in Newport.

Warm regards and
very respectfully,

JOSEPH C. STRASSER
