Subject: Admiral Zumwalt Luncheon--March 18, 1997

Pat,

It has been a while since we last saw each other and I hope to remedy that situation if we can get on each other's calendar.

Would your schedule allow you to accept an invitation to attend a special luncheon on Tuesday, March 18th at the Links Club at 12:30 PM? I have kept the invitations to this luncheon very limited and at the senior most level to provide an opportunity for direct interaction.

Admiral Elmo Zumwalt, our guest speaker, is presently serving as a member of President Clinton's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board and is a Director of several corporations. The Admiral will share with us his thoughts on a topic about which he is passionate. He is a strong advocate for HR executives forming the highest level partnerships with their CEOs and Boards in the running of their business enterprises.

As a Board executive for a number of corporations and as the former Chief of Naval Operations and Joint Chiefs of Staff, he has first hand experience with the critical role and utilization of HR leadership. Because of the troubled times in manpower during his watch as CNO and from his Board responsibilities, he can demonstrate how tight the linkages must be for success.

As Admiral Zumwalt is a major leader and key contributor to the leadership of our country, Right Management Consultants is delighted to sponsor this meeting and know that it will be worthwhile to all in attendance.

The Links Club is located at 36 E. 62nd Street between Madison and Park. The meeting will be held from 12:30 to approximately 2:00 PM. I've invited the top 20 HR leaders in the city and hope you can attend.

Please let me know if you can make it.
