

COMMANDER
NAVY RECRUITING COMMAND

7 NOV 1974

Dear Admiral Zumwalt,

Thank you for sending on the letter from your young friend in California, William M. Murray.

As he states in his letter, he failed to achieve a qualifying score on the Officer Aptitude Rating test at the Navy Recruiting District, Los Angeles in September. Although he apparently is a fine young man and motivated for a commission, the score was low enough that his chances for selection by the Administrative Selection Board were very slim. He is planning another try at the test in March and we are hopeful that he will be in the running for one of the few Officer Candidate School quotas.

I appreciate your continued personal recruiting efforts for us.

KEEP CHARGING!

Sincere best regards
and very respectfully,

EMMETT H. TIDD

Vice Admiral, U. S. Navy

Admiral Elmo R. Zumwalt, Jr., USN (Retired)

Falls Church, Virginia 22044