Dear Ed,

Many thanks for letting us reproduce your photographs of our great days in Shanghai. They brought back a flood of memories--all of them happy. I hardly recognized that young lieutenant with all the black hair--except he looks just like my son!

I hope the intervening years have been kind and rewarding for you. It is still difficult to believe that my active duty days are over--but the recollection of the wonderful people I worked with along the way will always remain vivid. I hope your experience has been similar.

Your photographs are being returned under separate cover. Mouza joins me in sending all good wishes to you and yours. We hope with more than allittle nostalgia that our paths will cross again.

Warm regards,

E. R. ZUMWALT, JR.
