TO THE ATTENDEES AT THE ADMIRAL ZUMWALT AWARD DINNER

Dear Shipmates:

I deeply regret that a previously scheduled commitment makes it impossible for me to be with you on the occasion of the dinner presenting the Award which has honored me by having my name associated with it.

The purpose of this letter is to record my heartiest congratulations to the six winners. I am well aware, from my own experience as a Mess Officer nearly fifty years ago and through my personal attention to mess matters during my subsequent career, of the tremendous attention to detail, motivation and high morale required to win such a competition.

I send my best wishes. Well done!

Sincerely,

E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
