Dear Bud,

As requested, I looked into the matter of the uniform we sent to the Tulare Historical Museum on 3 May. Since we had forwarded it by Registered Mail, we were able to have our local Post Office trace it. When we learned that Ruth Larson of the museum staff had signed for it on 6 May, Henry Vadnais of my staff called Mr. Sturgeon asking him to verify this information. He did acknowledge its safe arrival and will send us a duly signed loan agreement.

Sincerely,

JOHN D. H. KANE, JR.
Rear Admiral, USN, Retired
