ADMIRAL ELMO RUSSELL ZUMWALT, JR., USN (RET.)

Admiral Zumwalt was Chief of Naval Operations and a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from 1970 to 1974. He is currently serving as President of Admiral Zumwalt and Consultants, Inc., a consulting firm in the fields of management, energy, health care, overseas business operations, foreign and defense policy, and strategic planning.

Admiral Zumwalt is presently serving as a Director of twelve corporations and organizations, one of which being Todd Shipyards Corporation.

He also serves on charitable/not-for-profit foundations/corporations including Board of Directors, Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center, and the National Marrow Donor Program (Chairman).

Admiral Zumwalt was born in Tulare, California in 1920. He was valedictorian of his Tulare High School Class of 1938, and a cum laude graduate of the United States Naval Academy. He is married to the former Mouza Coutelais-du-Roche of Harbin, Manchuria and has one son and two daughters. His eldest son, Elmo Russell Zumwalt, III, died of cancer in August 1988.

At age 44, Admiral Zumwalt became the youngest officer ever promoted to Rear Admiral. At age 49, he became the youngest four-star Admiral in United States history. He was promoted over 35 senior Admirals to become the youngest man ever to serve as Chief of Naval Operations.

Admiral Zumwalt initiated wide-ranging reforms in a dramatic effort to revitalize the Navy. His famous "Z-grams" modernized the Navy, and made Navy careers much more attractive. "TIME" hailed Admiral Zumwalt as "the Navy's most popular leader since World War II." As the Navy's senior officer, he increased the fighting capabilities of the dwindling United States fleet by outfitting remaining ships with more sophisticated and efficient weapons.

Admiral Zumwalt was Commander of the United States Naval Forces in Vietnam from 1968 to 1970.

Admiral Zumwalt ran as the Democratic candidate for the United States Senate in Virginia in 1976.

Admiral Zumwalt was a Governor of the American Stock Exchange from 1979 until 1985 and was a Director of Esmark, Inc., Gifford-Hill & Company, Inc., and Transway International, Inc.

Admiral Zumwalt is co-author of the "Zumwalt's Report", a weekly newspaper column on vital current issues published in various newspapers around the country.

Admiral Zumwalt is the author of two books. "On Watch" (1976) recounts his Navy career and warns Americans about the Soviet naval threat. "My Father, My Son" (1986) was co-authored by his late son, and is an account of their Vietnam experiences and the tragedy that resulted.

Admiral Zumwalt has received honorary degrees from Villanova University, the University of North Carolina, United States International University, National University, Central Michigan University, and Michigan Technological University. He has been a Visiting Professor and guest lecturer at Stanford University, the University of Pennsylvania, Vanderbilt University, the University of Nebraska, and Whittier College.
