Dear Mouza & Bud:

I often think of you two and would very much like to visit but unfortunately I have developed Parkinson so my activities have been curtailed although I am still active.

My son, Travis, is 27 years old and is helping me in my various investments. For the last six years he was a trekking guide in Himalayas section of Nepal.

My daughter, Samantha, who lives in Steamboat Springs, Colorado is spending more time here with me as her children are in college and she gets tired of the strong winters.

Hope this letter finds you both well and in good Holiday Spirit. I embrace you with a big hug. With good thoughts and good wishes, I am,

Your chum

Mr. Arthur Spitzer

Dear Art:

Mouza and I were delighted to hear from you, but saddened to learn that you are having problems.

We hope our paths will be able to cross in 1999, and we send you our best wishes for a happy and fruitful year.

Sincerely,

E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
