Dear Senator Thurmond,

Thank you for your generous remarks on my tour as Chief of Naval Operations which you so thoughtfully placed in the Congressional Record. Your words reflect well what I tried to accomplish during the past four years, but I am keenly aware that only time will demonstrate how enduringly successful were my goals and labors. I sincerely attribute all our achievements to the prodigious efforts of my great Navy team and to the understanding support from statesmen such as you on the Hill. I am deeply grateful to you.

Mouza and I look forward to seeing you and Nancy often in the days ahead. You have, as always, my sincere best wishes.

Warm regards,

E. R. ZUMWALT, JR.

The Honorable Strom Thurmond
