Dear Admiral Zumwalt:

I want to thank you for the most gracious letter which you wrote to Burke West. Ann and I had it framed and matted, and presented to Burke at his birthday party on March 16 in Ridgecrest. It was without question the hit of the evening. Burke appreciated it very much and no doubt you will be hearing from him personally. Your letter had special meaning for him, since he knew your father "Doc" Zumwalt when he practiced at China Lake. Again, my thanks to you for making a magnificent warrior's 75th birthday celebration so special.

My best to you and Mouza. I hope that we will see each other in the near future. With much appreciation, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
