Mrs. Franklin Platt Williams

Dear Bud,

Please overlook the formal nature of this stationery. I thought it appropriate for the enclosed letter. I have so much left over from our ambassadorial days for which it was mandatory.

I feel remiss in not being in touch with you before this. This gives me a chance to check on you and Mongai's well-being generally and health specifically. I know you

Frank's death, but that, of course, is impossible. Still the pain has long since been transmuted into an incentive to make my life more meaningful in ways that he would understand, and I can realize in my own way.

Thanks for your efforts to obtain his records. Also for all the help you gave him in life.

I am grateful for having known you and Marga, one of the many benefits of being married to Frank. My warmest regards.
Shirley

am still working and productive as I would expect you to be.

Perhaps Ed has mentioned to you that we are working on a scholarship program in Frank's memory. Ed has been a treasure and an amazingly hard worker on behalf of his effort. If all goes well, the first scholars will be chosen in time for the 1995-1996 school year.

My social and cultural activities are very rewarding.

Dear Shirley:

It was great to get brought up to date in your letter.

As you may have heard, Mouza suffered an aneurysm of the brain 3 ½ years ago and had to have brain surgery. She has had a remarkable recovery, but we have had to reduce the pace of her activities. We are very thankful that she is able to continue to enjoy life.

Mouza joins me in sending love and best wishes to you.

I will keep on top of our request to the Army.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.".
