Dear Boss:

In response to your letter of May 15th, I would be delighted to meet with Les Cullen any time convenient to his schedule during the time he will be in the Washington, D.C. area next month. Whether or not he yet realizes it, Les is about to embark on one of the most fascinating "academic adventures" he could undertake. You are a great subject! It would be my pleasure to support his research in any way I can.

In other areas, I certainly appreciate the letters you have sent out on my behalf. I have written a follow-up letter to John Warner. It turns out I last met and talked to him about five years ago at a Republican event celebrating Tom Davis' election to the House of Representatives. I served as one of Davis' volunteer grass roots organizers here in Springfield just prior to leaving for Saudi Arabia. I'm certain John wouldn't recall our chance meeting but I nevertheless reminded him of it.

And, although I've been playing "telephone tag" with Steve Minikes, I think he too has sent out several letters. I finally dropped him a short note last week suggesting that if his schedule ever slows down, perhaps we could meet for lunch.

Again, thanks for the "assists". I'll keep you cut in concerning what, if anything further develops. And, I'll look forward to talking to Les Cullen should he contact me.

As always, Martha joins me in sending our love to Mouza and the family.

Sincerely,
