Admiral E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
U. S. Navy
Chief of Naval Operations
Washington, D. C. 20350

Dear Admiral Zumwalt:

I deeply appreciate your thoughtful letter of June 25 and both as a member of Congress and as a retired Naval officer, I can say that I take great pride in the progress and advance made by the Naval service under your leadership as Chief of Naval Operations.

I value your friendship highly and wish you continued good health and happiness in the future. I hope you will call on me anytime I can be of service in any way.

With kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

John Young
