Dear Admiral Zumwalt:

I want to thank you personally for accepting our invitation to write an essay for the forthcoming volume of BELIEF IN ACTION. I feel certain that your contribution will add greatly to the overall value of this publication.

Due to the overwhelming response to BELIEF IN ACTION, we are presently running a few weeks behind schedule in preparing and forwarding information packets to BELIEF IN ACTION contributors. We hope this delay does not present you with any great inconvenience, and hope also that you will accept our apology for this delay.

For your own interest, we think you'll be pleased to learn that a most distinguished group of individuals will be joining you in this book. Including Steve Allen, Norman Cousins, His Holiness the Dalai Lama, Indira Ghandi, Irving Wallace, and many more.

Again, Admiral, I thank you for accepting our invitation and for bearing with this slight delay. We shall send you your information packet as soon as we possibly can.

With sincere best wishes,

I am your sincerely,

Phillip L. Berman, M.T.S.
