Dear Paul:

Many thanks for your letter of March 17. The family liked the story, but hated the picture. I think that is better than the reverse.

I will stand by to sign any correspondence that Jim Miller wants me to send to the Sultan to pave the way for a trip. What I would like to do is arrange to visit General Giap in Vietnam and the Sultan in Brunei on a single swing sometime in the summer or fall.

Sincerely,

E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
