Dear Mary Jo and George:

Mouza and I very much enjoyed your update on Indonesia. It was thoughtful of you to do so.

I am tentatively planning to be in Brunei for a day to visit the Sultan on September 8, but I haven't yet heard that he will see me. My objective is to get him to contribute some money to the U.S. Navy Memorial Foundation; I am using as entree the fact that I participated in the liberation of Brunei at the end of World War II.

I realize this is a long shot, but I wondering if there is anything you can do to facilitate my gaining access to him.

In any event, all best wishes from the Zumwalts to the Satterthwaites.

Sincerely,

E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
