Dear Ambassador Tull:

Your staff will have copies of correspondence requesting the opportunity to have a visit on September 8 with the His Majesty The Sultan of Brunei.

I am eager to have this experience for two reasons: (1) as a young lieutenant, I served on board the USS Robinson DD 562 on the occasion of the Liberation of Brunei toward the end of World War II; (2) I am a director of the U.S. Navy Memorial Foundation and want to ask His Majesty for a contribution that would make it possible to commemorate the Liberation of Brunei among our impressive series of symbolic reminders at the Navy Memorial here in Washington, DC.

I would be grateful for anything you can do to make the visit happen.

With all best wishes for continuing success, I am

Respectfully,

E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
