

ADDENDUM TO JCS MEETING 4/21/71

It was really silly to try out a third alternate ABM position which was tougher than the two that had already been put forward. With regard to the FDS Proposal, in retrospect it looks as though Kissinger probably made a deal with the Soviets about this time to compensate for FDS without calling it compensation for FDS.