

Tape # - Side A - Part 0
(2)

ADDENDUM TO THE 9 DECEMBER '71

OP DEF's (?) MEETING TEN HUNDRED

The last paragraph of the first page is the first indication that ULMS is beginning to come to life - we need to bring out that it was sparked by Navy's submission to SEC DEF - other recommendations.

With regard to Page 2, the last paragraph, there are two problems that need to be considered in any analysis of strategic forces: one, the political impact of the perception of inferiority; and, two, the real military situation - SAGA deals only with the latter - but PONAAT shows the U.S. military situation worsens too.

Tape # - Side A - Part 1
(2)

ADDENDUM TO THE 30 DECEMBER 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

BETWEEN COMMANDER INMAN AND COL. KENNEDY

This provides a nice in the "Honeymoon Petered Out
Chapter" in the midst of our effort to get understanding, sweetness, and light, a dangerous initiative to send greetings was shot down.

Tape # - Side A - Part 1
(2)

ADDENDUM TO JCS MEETING 12/10/71

We quote on the last paragraph of the first page and the top paragraph of the second page - it might be useful to show the problems of parochialism in JCS.

Tape # - Side A - Part 1
(2)

ADDENDUM TO THE OP DEF'S MEETING OF 13 DECEMBER '71

More evidence of parochialism that might be of use concerning ULMS.

(2) - Side A - Part 1

ADDENDUM TO MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

OF THE SPECIAL JCS MEETING 27 DEC. '71

With regard to the second paragraph, Wohlstetter's subsequent articles has proved this point about intelligence estimates being less than the Soviets have produced.