Dear Mr. Hayes:

I was intrigued to read about your military service in Vietnam and the status of your work with Gannon Pacific.

The purpose of this letter is to advise you that I will be going to Vietnam in September for meetings with senior Vietnamese officials, the primary purpose of which is to achieve joint research on Agent Orange. However, I intend to also deal with trade matters. I am taking with me a good friend, Mr. Ca Van Tran, an American citizen who is President of the Viet Nam Assistance for the Handicapped which has been providing prosthetic devices for Vietnam veterans in Vietnam. I am chairman of his advisory board.

I have asked Mr. Ca Van Tran to give you a call to see if there are mutual interests in connection with our trip.

All best wishes.

Sincerely,

E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
