Dear Admiral Zumwalt,

I was absolutely delighted to see that excellent picture of you and Vo Nguyen Giap in the Sunday Atlanta Journal/Constitution newspaper.

What a wonderful symbol of reconciliation! I salute you and commend you for making the trip to Vietnam to meet with the General. I know that meeting will go far in helping to bring about healing and full reconciliation between the people of the United States and Vietnam.

Linda and I received our letter last week concerning Renaissance Weekend. We definitely plan to be at Hilton Head over the New Year's holidays. We hope we will see you there.

Again, my heart was really touched to see that picture and to read about your good visit to Vietnam.

Sincerely,

Millard Fuller

Dear Millard:

It was thoughtful of you to write your letter of September 12. I fulfilled all my objectives in Vietnam and will be prepared to talk about them at Renaissance.

Mouza joins me in sending all the best to you and yours.

Sincerely,

E. R. Zumwalt, Jr.
