Dear Admiral (Ret.) Zumwalt

Welcome to Cantigny, the former estate of Colonel Robert R. McCormick, longtime editor and publisher of the Chicago Tribune. We are pleased to have you as a participant in the Cantigny Conference Series.

The Cantigny Conference Series was initiated in 1992 and is designed to offer the opportunity for collaboration between the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, the conference sponsor, and other institutions that are addressing issues consonant with the goals of the foundation.

Those goals are to: Improve the social and economic environment; Encourage a free and responsible discussion of issues affecting our nation; Enhance the effectiveness of American education; and Stimulate responsible citizenship.

Cantigny, with its attractive buildings and spacious grounds and gardens, provides a quiet atmosphere that makes it an ideal setting for serious concentration on important subjects. It is our intent that you will find this an opportunity to deal with these issues and thereby provide insights and suggestions which will have the potential to reach a larger audience through a series of reports published and distributed by the foundation.

The staff is here to support your efforts. We look forward to assisting you during your time at Cantigny.

Sincerely,

Neal Creighton
President/CEO
