

The Vietnam Archive

AT TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

The Vietnam Archive of Texas Tech University is a unit of the Special Collections area of the University Library. Its purpose is to collect, house, and preserve information related to the American experience in Vietnam, with special emphasis on the experiences of people of Texas and the Southwest. Published material collected for the Archive may comprise items in all formats pertaining to aspects of the Vietnam War, including military, civilian, economic, social, and domestic opposition, and should include literature, music and poetry. Non-print material collected will focus on the experiences of people of Texas and the Southwest. Types of non-print material may include diaries, letters, photographs, maps, sound recordings, film and video, oral history, scrapbooks, and albums.

Vietnam Center Advisory Board

Admiral Elmo R. Zumwalt, USN (Ret), Chairman

The Vietnam Center Advisory Board is an advisory body of the College of Arts & Sciences, Texas Tech University, whose purpose is the enrichment of the total resources and facilities of the Center for the Study of the Vietnam Conflict and the Vietnam Archive at Texas Tech University.

Comprised principally of Vietnam veterans from the community, the Advisory Board provides guidance and assistance in the development of the Vietnam Archive and in all activities sponsored by the Center for the Study of the Vietnam Conflict. The Vietnam Center Advisory Board provides a lively and vital link between the community and the University thereby assuring a continuing public input into the ongoing Vietnam program at Texas Tech University.

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR the study of the VIETNAM CONFLICT

Established by the Board of Regents in December, 1989, the Center for the Study of the Vietnam Conflict is a unit of the College of Arts and Sciences, Texas Tech University. Its purpose is to encourage research in Vietnam-related topics through support and use of the Vietnam Archive at Texas Tech University. The Center functions as a focal point for both public and academic research into Vietnam-related topics and serves to attract funding for scholarships and grants for advanced research in these areas. In addition, the Center also provides funding for the Vietnam Archive at Texas Tech University for acquisitions of collections and program support.

The Center also provides numerous avenues of public awareness for Vietnam conflict studies: the establishment of an oral history program designed to record the South Plains Vietnam experience; the development of a resource center/training facility for secondary school teachers desiring to teach the Vietnam War in regional high schools; and the organizing and hosting of major conferences on the Vietnam conflict.
