Elmo R. Zumwalt, Jr.
Admiral, U.S. Navy

Dear Admiral,

It was very useful to receive your recent letters.

I forwarded them to LONG and explained carefully what you wanted to teach him and what your expectation is. I am sure he learned his lessons through teaching and through his own experiences. I hope he will be much better.

On my part, I apologize to you for having such a rude and awkward son. I have extremely been embarrassed not be able to control my family and to not be able to respond to the Zumwalts willingness to help.

I always try to do my best, Admiral.
With my best regard.

Sincerely yours,
Langxuan Nguyen

Dear Lang:

It was very thoughtful of you to send me your letter of 18 October. Elmo and I continue to be impressed with you and are eager to continue our help.

All best wishes.

Sincerely,
