Dear Bond,

The enclosed letter is self-explanatory. I called Tom Dorsey (our old "friend" with Los Angeles Times Syndicate) today. He is "very interested" -- he returned my call so I tend to believe him. Dorsey asked me to lunch 17 January (he is in + out of town in next 2 weeks), to discuss a column. I told him I would go over it with him, discuss then with you, & the next step would follow accordingly.

I should take 3-4 sample articles. Will send you one or more to go over in next few days. Would you do one and get to me 12-15 January as well as Return mine with changes, comments, etc.?

Hope all this OK with you. It may be a blind alley, but we will just have to test it.

The run and water were enjoyable.

Sincerely,

Worth
