Dear Admiral Zumwalt:

Enclosed you will please find a theatre program for The Wall: A Pilgrimage, presented by our committee in conjunction with our recent display of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Moving Wall on the campus of the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts.

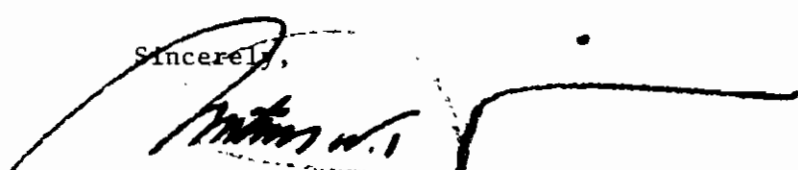

As you will note, our production was dedicated to the memory of your son, Lt. Elmo R. Zumwalt III, USN. It was my great honor and privilege to have met Lt. Zumwalt in November of 1984, when we were both guests at the dedication of the statue at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C., and the conveyance of the Memorial to the government.

As a staff member of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund Inc., it has been my good fortune to meet and spend time with many remarkable individuals. I must tell you that having the opportunity to spend time in your son's company was an experience I will never forget - his warmth, kindness, wit and intelligence will always remain a part of me.

As soon as it is available, I will forward to you a copy of the videotape we made of our production.

Once again, thank you for allowing us this opportunity to honor your son and his service to his country. I shall continue to miss Elmo, both as an acquaintance and as an example of all that is right with this great nation of ours.

Sincerely,

Lester W. Paquin

MAN'S WILL

*Young lady, let your daddy be
Your ancestor, for that he was,
Supremely, and you are his prize.
He sees his future in your eyes;
To make your face he stripped the cells
From his heart's walls. To give you form,
He matched his muscles with the frame
God gave the world. So when you walk
In wonder that you have a spring
Your father seems to lack, recall
That he intended most of all
To give his children everything.*
