

February 21, 1985

Mr. Gilbert M. Grosvenor
President
National Geographic Magazine
17th and M Streets, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Mr. Grosvenor:

As a subscriber to the National Geographic Society's monthly magazine, I want to express to you and your staff the appreciation of our family for the factual, timely and succinct article: " Storing Up Trouble.... Hazardous Waste," as included in the March 1985 issue beginning on page 318.

Our thanks especially to Mr. Allen A. Boraiko, Senior Editorial Staff and photographs by Mr. Fred Ward, Black Star for their truly outstanding work.

The article maintains the extremely high quality of devotion to detailed data supported by fine graphics and photography required for such excellence in "telling it like it is " !!

Congratulations from,

Donald D. Carruth
Donald D. Carruth, President
The American Eagle Foundation
3306 Winnett Road
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

National Geographic Society

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20036

GILBERT M. GROSVENOR
PRESIDENT

March 1, 1985

Mr. Donald D. Carruth
The American Eagle Foundation
3306 Winnett Road
Chevy Chase, MD 20815

Dear Mr. Carruth:

Many thanks for your thoughtful letter about our article on hazardous wastes. Readers' comments are important to us, and I will see that yours are circulated among our senior editorial staff.

We appreciate your interest in the Geographic.

Sincerely,

GMG:ald