Dear Admiral Zumwalt:

I would like to thank you for meeting with me on Monday, 2 October, to discuss my research into navy combat leadership. I very much appreciate the time that you gave me in both reading the technical report and discussing its contents with me. I am in the process of sending copies of the report to the other retired flag officers that you recommended.

If there is anything else that you would like to bring to my attention, please do not hesitate to ask. Again, thank you for your time and your kind words.

Sincerely,
