Son Jim recommends we invite Gen Giap's brother-in-law, Lt Gen Pham Hong Son, to the April conference. The invitation should be extended to him as a professor and Ph.D. who is recognized as an authority on the war based on his book, "The Art of Fighting to Save the Country of the Vietnamese People" which deals with the strategy used to fight U.S. forces. The invitation should also include the purpose of the conference and who the participants are. If you agree, please fax it over my signature direct to General Son at 011-844-348-696.

Jim also reports that General Le Van Duong has my letter and will respond directly to me. I will let you know as soon as we receive any correspondence.
