Dear Admiral:

Invitation to General Boomer

I take this opportunity to forward a draft copy of a proposed letter of invitation for General Boomer, as mentioned in my fax of 15 September.) P gr

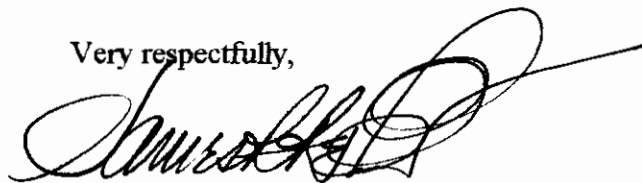

Conference on Mr. McNamara's Book

The folks at the Vietnam Veterans Institute have asked me to chair the panel on their program which includes you as a panel member. Having read the list of speakers and commentators, I have concluded that I am at least fully qualified to deliver coffee to just about everyone on the panel, but not much more. Nevertheless, the conference offers a good opportunity for me to highlight the Vietnam project at Texas Tech to a group that is absolutely focused on Vietnam, so I have agreed to participate. Of course, I very much look forward to the opportunity to see you and Mrs. Zumwalt again.) I am in

Vietnam Center Newsletter

At long last we have another newsletter at the printers, and it should be ready for mailing next week. I will ensure that several copies are sent directly to you. The newsletter includes a draft agenda for the symposium, but the one that I am enclosing for the letter to General Boomer is even more up to date. It includes a number of papers that have been proposed since the newsletter went to the printers.

Very respectfully,

James R. Reckner
