Dear Dr. Pike:

Many thanks for sending me a copy of your tear sheet on On Watch. I have taken the liberty of sending it to my children and grandchildren to try to impress them.

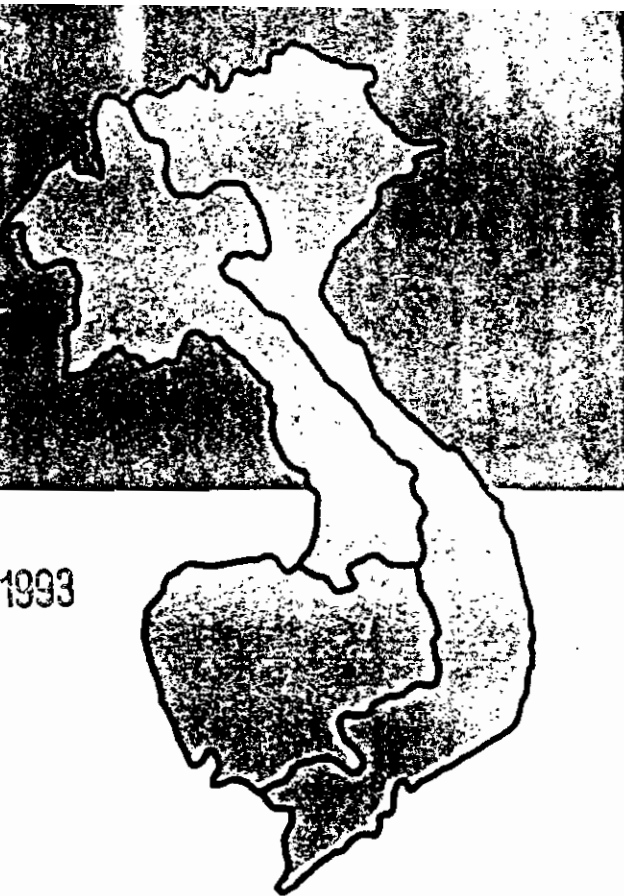

Sincerely,

E.R. Zumwalt, Jr.

On Watch, by Elmo R. Zumwalt, Jr. Some admirals, as they move up the career ladder, increasingly seek to practice eccentricity as a form of role modeling. But not Elmo Zumwalt. It is clear in this extensive and candid autobiography that here is an exceedingly complex human being, one who virtually defies definition, even by himself. Zumwalt in the Vietnam War is briefly addressed passim but takes up very little of the total text. Nor are there any surprises in what he sets down on the subject.
