Dear Admiral:

Thank you for the copy of your letter to Rear Admiral Chon. Following your call with information about his desire to continue on to Houston, we have decided simply to let him make his own arrangements and then reimburse him for the portion of the trip to Lubbock. That will give him much more flexibility. I have talked to him directly on the telephone, so I think that that aspect is cleared up. I have asked him to provide his travel details as soon as he receives them, so that I can meet him at the airport.

I have also received a letter from Admiral Chon indicating that Dr. Pham's assurances notwithstanding, he desires not to speak at the conference, but rather, to use the time to meet the various conference participants. That, of course is satisfactory with us, although we would have been more happy had he felt free to speak about his experiences.

Rear Admiral Price has called to say that he will be attending the conference, and sounded very pleased with the prospect of meeting with you and Admiral Chon once again. Vice Admiral Rectanus has written to say that he is unable to rearrange his schedule in order to attend. I should have thought of asking for that address months ago, but, of course, didn't.

All other arrangements seem to be progressing nicely at this point.

Very respectfully,

James R. Zumwalt
