Dear Admiral and Mrs. Zumwalt:

Once again, we were honored by your presence at Texas Tech University. It is difficult to express the appreciation of the University for the extraordinary and indeed indispensable service that you have rendered in assisting the growth in size and quality of the Center for the Study of the Vietnam Conflict and its archive. We are genuinely grateful.

It was a pleasure to see you again, Admiral, and it was delightful indeed to meet you, Mrs. Zumwalt. I very much enjoyed our interesting conversation about Mongolia, Manchuria, and Russian colonies in China. I hope to pursue this discussion in greater length when next we meet.

May I again state our appreciation for your support and for your presence. I also extend to you both my very best wishes and regards.

Sincerely yours,

Idris R. Traylor, Jr., Ph.D.
Executive Director
