

"I've been meaning to write for the past three weeks -- mainly to tell you what a wonderful conference you and Don Walker and the others in the history department put on for us. The underlying effort and coordination, which is what makes these things run so smoothly, was very evident. Many, many thanks for a job well done!

Sam L. Pfister
Oil executive, Georgetown, Texas

"You and your colleagues put on a first class operation. In 1980 I was intimately involved in arranging a similar type conference on the Cold War, so I know how much is required to do this type of thing."

Lt. Col. Richard L. Kiper
Army Command & Staff College
Fort Leavenworth, Kansas

"I wanted to thank you again for inviting me to participate in the Vietnam: Paris + 20 conference. The organization was superb and the papers insightful and informative."

Assistant Professor Jean Paquette
Lander University, Greenwood, South Carolina

"Congratulations on an excellent Paris + 20 Conference. It was an excellent event - from the arrival of Admiral Zumwalt to the final dinner Saturday night."

"Your foresight, hard work and heartfelt commitment brought international attention and acclaim to Texas Tech and the Center for the Study of Vietnam."

"The 'stars' literally fell on Lubbock and Tech last weekend -- some in the form of Admirals and Generals, others as renowned scholars, authors and historians."

"While both Admirals Chon and Zumwalt received well deserved standing ovations, the one given you was for sincerely felt admiration and thanks."

"You have done the Center and Tech proud."

Mr. Phil Price
President & CEO, Phil Price Advertising
Lubbock

"I believe this conference was tremendous for the college, university and city. It was a great pleasure to meet Admiral Zumwalt and Admiral Chon and it was an honor for me personally to be a part of the advisory board meeting on Saturday."

Mr. Tim Chambers
College of Arts & Sciences

"The conference was an enriching experience for me and I look forward to returning to Lubbock in 1996."

Deborah Gershenowitz
Graduate student, Bloomington, Indiana

"Attending the Vietnam conference was a dream come true. The experience, lessons learned and friends made all combined to make a perfect four days. I should add that I'm already thinking of paper ideas for the next conference!"

Alan L. Moore
Undergraduate student, Reynoldsburg, Ohio