Dear Admiral:

Attached file is my first formal response from the Vietnamese following their visit to Lubbock. From the tenor of the message, I conclude they were pleased, and that the way is clear for future cooperation.

Very respectfully, James R. Reckner

Dear Dr. James R. Reckner

Thank you very much indeed for some wonderful days in Lubbock. I kept very strong impression about our conference, scientific and friendship atmosphere during I was there with you. This is the first time abroad I feel myself at home. Permit me once again to thank you and all our friends and colleagues at Vietnam Center, Texas Tech University. Like you, I look forward to increasingly close and productive cooperation between TTU (Lubbock) and my university.

I am very glad that, first day came back to my office I received your fax in which you informed me about supporting for project on American history and Chancellor and President of TTU planned visits to Vietnam next year. That is great honour and we will try to do the best for our cooperation. I do hope that the journey of Mr Le Cong Khanh this week and your visit in July will be set up our future cooperation. I have contacted with Prof. Do Nguyen Phuong Minister of Ministry of Heath, Prof. General Nguyen Dinh Uoc, Director of Institute of Military History. They are very glad to discuss with you when you visit us. You will be warm welcome at my university and at International Conference on Vietnamese Studies in July. I Look forward to see you in Hanoi soon.

With the best wishes to you, to your family and to our cooperation.

Yours sincerely.

Nguyen Quang Ngoc
