I talked ~~today~~ to Dr. Jay Davis who heads the Threat Reduction Agency located at Dulles Airport in Virginia. He is interested in meeting with you and is available the week of February 16.

I request that you contact his office direct (703-810-4549) to make an appointment to brief him on Thursday, February 18, the day after the Johns Hopkins conference. He requests that you send him information in advance so that he can assemble the right people.

In order for me to be there, the meeting should be in the afternoon. I have a speaking engagement in Louisville, Kentucky, on the evening of Wednesday, February 17, and will fly back during the morning of February 18.

~~cc: Dr. Davis~~

The article that Lynn Frame forwarded via the internet on Jan 26 had an announcement which says that across the country, federal officials are holding seminars in the nation's top 120 cities to train emergency personnel.

You folks ought to establish a connection to discuss the provision of training services.
