

Hi

I got your money today.
Thankyou. It was good to hear dad's voice.

I'm laying in bed and there is a nice cool breeze blowing in here. It is so nice here. I tried surfing for the second time since I've been here. I thought snow skiing was bad but surfing is really hard. My ribs are all bruised up.

My bike is running really good. I have such a good time with it. It is really economical on gas.

I'll send some colored pictures of me with the bike and on Wiakiki.

I'm taking psychology course from the Army. I get six college credits for it. It cost me only five dollars and that covered the books and everything. Its correspondence I am also taking a ~~typ~~ Typing course every morning for two hours.

I think I told you that I am standing up for this friend of mine. He is getting married this Saturday. I'll send home some pictures of the wedding. Well I guess thats all the news so take it easy.

Love Ted
